Is Poland moving towards battery energy storage systems (BESS)?

As expected, Poland's latest capacity market auctions have highlighted a significant shift towards the battery energy storage systems (BESS) beside the fact that the de-rating factor has been significantly decreased.

How much is a battery worth in Poland?

According to the data of the Central Statistical Office, its value exceeded EUR 400 million at the end of 2020. And it keeps rising. Batteries are also the number one of Polish export commodity. At the end of the last year, they moved to the first place of Polish products, which are most sold abroad.

How many MW rated energy storage systems are there in Poland?

The capacity obligations for these projects ranged from 1.2 MW to 153 MW rated power, with an average capacity of around 30 MW. The decision to reduce the de-rating factor for energy storage systems in the last capacity market auction in Poland from 95 percent to 61 percent did not prove detrimental to the market.

How do market trends affect the cost of home energy storage battery systems?

Market trends and demand dynamics can influence the cost of home energy storage battery systems. As demand for residential energy storage grows, economies of scale, technological advancements, and increased competition may lead to lower prices over time.

What determines the cost of a home energy storage battery system?

The capacity and power rating of the home energy storage battery system play a significant role in determining its cost. A 30kWh system refers to the capacity, representing the total amount of energy the system can store. The power rating, measured in kilowatts (kW), indicates how much power the system can deliver at any given time.

How does battery chemistry affect a 30kWh home energy storage system?

The choice of battery chemistry significantly impacts the cost of a 30kWh home energy storage system. Common battery chemistries include lithium-ion, lead-acid, and flow batteries.
