Does the Fenix 7 have a solar battery?

Here's the official solar-related battery chart of the Fenix 7 series, and how it compares to each iteration from the Fenix 6 series: As you can see, it's quite significant - again, assuming you have the solar power. But this is only showing that 3 hours. So imagine you're hiking in the summer across a mountain range.

What size is the Fenix 7x Sapphire solar?

We posted our review of the Garmin Epix (2nd gen) last week, so it's time to follow up with our thoughts on the Fenix 7X Sapphire Solar. There are three available sizes of the Fenix 7 series: 42mm, 47mm and 51mm. There are also three options for editions: standard, solar, and sapphire solar.

Does Garmin Fenix 7 have solar charging?

One feature I was curious about - and not particularly sold on - was Garmin Fenix 7 solar charging capabilities. It used to be optional on the previous generation of Fenix watches, and I probably wouldn't have splurged for the power glass if I had the option. But with the Pro generation, it comes default so there's no choice.

How much does a Fenix 7 cost?

There are also three options for editions: standard, solar, and sapphire solar. This results in 16 possible combinations of the Fenix 7, ranging in price from $699.99 to $999.99. We were provided with the opportunity to test out the 51mm sapphire solar model with black DLC titanium with a black silicone band, priced at $899.99.

Is the Garmin Fenix 7x Sapphire solar a good watch?

In my exploration of cutting-edge wearable technology, the Garmin Fenix 7X Sapphire Solar stands out as a testament to precision and resilience. Harnessing the power of the sun and fortified with a durable Sapphire lens, this watch embodies a new era of dependability.

How much storage does a Fenix 7 have?

In the case of the Fenix 7, the non-Sapphire editions include 16GB of storage, and the Sapphire includes 32GB of storage. For Sapphire units, they're preloaded with global maps. However, for the base units, they aren't pre-loaded, and you'll need to download the maps using the watch. To do so, on the watch you'll go to Settings > Map > Map Manager:
